Course Description

Computer programming and the use of computers to solve engineering and mathematical problems. Emphasizes applying problem solving skills; directed toward technical careers in fields employing a reasonably high degree of mathematics. The programming language used depends on the demands of the departments in the college. Several languages may be taught each semester, no more than one per section. Those required to learn a specific language must enroll in the correct section (2 credits).

Course Pre-Requisite

Course Objectives

The main objective of this course is to provide a foundation in programming for engineering problem solving using the MATLAB software package. Students will develop the skills to analyze and break down an engineering program and solve it algorithmically using MATLAB. After this course, students will have an understanding of various programming constructs and how they can be used to solve a computational problem.

Class Expectations

This course runs on a flipped classroom design. Students will be expected to work in phases of before class, during class, and after class work every week.

Before class:

- 1) Watch the content videos for a particular module.
- 2) Complete a quiz based on the videos before coming to class.

During class: (A personal laptop is REQUIRED during class)

- 1) Complete and submit in-class activities on the weekly assigned module-related topic by Wednesday at 11:59 PM.
- 2) Ask any questions to the instructor, peer mentor or classmates.

After class:

- 1) Complete and submit weekly homework assignment. All homework assignments will be due on Sunday at 11:59 PM.

In addition, students are expected to complete and submit two exams and one final project. All submissions are made through the Canvas course site. Each student's lowest-graded quiz and in-class will be dropped (no question asked). Please note that there will be NO dropped homework grade. Every student is responsible for being aware of all posted course material and all announcements made during class even if they do not explicitly appear on the syllabus.

Attendance Policy

- Weekly classes will be held in the designated classroom. Regular attendance is REQUIRED except for excused absences. Attendance will be taken during class. All students must be physically present on time for their attendance to count. Face coverings are EXPECTED from students at all times during class even if they are vaccinated (see the information below regarding COVID-19 for more details).
- It is important to note that students are NOT allowed to submit weekly in-class assignments without attendance on Wednesday.
- Course materials will be provided to you with an excused absence, and you will be given a reasonable amount of time to make up work. Find more information in the university attendance policies.
- Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies. Click here to read the university attendance policies: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/>

Make-Up Policy

Makeups for exams, quizzes, in-class activities, homework assignments and the final project are NOT normally allowed. Late submission of an exam, quiz, activities, assignments or final project will result in a zero. If you cannot attend an exam, you must contact the instructor well in advance to schedule a make-up exam (at least 7 days before an announced exam date). Arrangements will be made for students on a case by case basis for excused reasons. Failure to contact the instructor prior to the exam, quiz, or final project will result in a zero. Students are allowed to submit homework assignments up to 24 hours late with a penalty of 20 points. This only applies to homework assignments and not in-class activities, final project or extra credit assignments. It is the student's responsibility to honor and respect the given deadlines posted on the Canvas course site (<https://elearning.ufl.edu>).

Evaluation of Grades

All assignments are assigned through the Canvas course site. Please note the deadlines are strictly enforced and there are NO dropped homework assignments. For example, if the deadline is 11:59 pm, any assignment submitted after this time is considered late. It is also each student's responsibility to submit their correct files and ensure the submission is successful before the deadline (please double check your Canvas submissions). If you are unable to submit your work through Canvas, send a copy of your assignment to your instructor before the stated deadline! There will be two exams and one final project. Each exam will be cumulative with an emphasis on the most recently covered material. Exam details will be posted on the Canvas course site (<https://elearning.ufl.edu>).

It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.ua.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluer.com/ufl/>. ## In-Class Recording

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services.

A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Conduct Code (<https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/process/student-conduct-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Academic Dishonesty

- Sharing or copying of code through any medium such as email, text, snapchat etc., and plagiarism, in addition to other dishonest behaviors, are all considered to be academic dishonesty. No information regarding the solutions of in-class activities, weekly homework assignments, project, quizzes, and exams may be shared by students except for a discussion at a conceptual level when allowed.
- Collaboration (helping out others at a conceptual level through discussions) is encouraged in the course. However, looking at any piece of your peer’s code, sharing files, searching for solutions found online, or using someone else to code your solution is strictly prohibited.
- Any student found to have violated these rules, whether a provider or receiver of an unauthorized help, will be given a zero on that assignment and will be reported to the Honor Court. Additional penalty like grade deduction may be applied depending on the severity of the case. If you aren’t clear on what constitutes plagiarism, ask the course staff.
- NOTE: Students will have the opportunity to inform the instructor in case they took any unauthorized help for a particular assignment within 24 hours of the submission deadline. In such a case they will receive no credit for that particular assignment and no further action will be taken.
- It is strongly encouraged for you to visit the course staff in-office hours whenever you have doubts.
