

Camila Salviano
Business Administration, Mass Communication concentration
Innovation Fellows Program - University of Florida
Herbert Wertheim College of Engineering/Warrington College of Business

Camila is a 3rd year student pursuing a Business Administration major, concentrating in Mass Communications, and minoring in Entrepreneurship. Camila believes that success is an ongoing process, and she is always looking to acquire new skills and improve on the ones she has already acquired. Her passion for personal development is a truth in her life, and the art of managing oneself efficiently is valuable for her individual and professional life. Hardworking describes Camilla, known to be strong, persistent, and one who fights for what she wants. A hardworking person does not give up easily, always trying to return to her daily struggle, whatever her goal, until she succeeds.

Camila is an international student from Brazil and moved to Gainesville to pursue her dream, which is to receive a good education and gain experience while studying. While in Brazil she had many experiences and achievements which she brought with her when moved to the U.S. and applies to her daily life. She has received Best Student in Class Award for four years in a row for getting the best grades and her effort to maintain a good environment in class with all of her colleagues and professors.

In terms of college involvement, during her time at Santa Fe College Camila had many experiences. Camila was selected to be a Student Ambassador to represent the college in events, tours and other tasks demanded by the college president, and, while being a student ambassador, she was able to gain experience in teamwork, creativity, and leadership. Camila also completed and received a certificate for the Engaged Leaders and Emerging Leaders program, program which she gained tremendous leadership skills. She was invited to be part of the Student Conduct Board, was also a treasurer for MedLife Saints, and a member of different student organizations such as the Civic Engagement Club and International Students Club & Association. In addition to that Camila worked in the International Students Office assisting hundreds of new international students during their admission process, and in developing strategies to reach more students. Finally, she was awarded with the International Student Certificate, and chosen to be part of the Hall of Fame of 2020, which is limited to 1/10 of 1% of the students.

Starting at UF, in less than one semester, Camila was accepted to be a project member on the S.I.F.T. consulting organization, she was selected to be part of the staff of the planning and execution of the Gator Grown Homecoming, and she is also a member of LAWIB and ALPFA.

Outside of her studies and college involvement, Camila had the opportunity to work as an administrative assistant for a Law Firm, and currently is a freelance social media specialist and media creator, and an English teacher for portugues speakers who are looking to expand their horizons and gain a second language skill. Camila will graduate from UF's College of business in 2022, and plans on pursuing a career in consulting or human relations.