UF in Dublin

INTRO TO GLOBAL ENGINEERING | Spring Break: March 1 - 8, 2020

COLLEGE INFORMATION
Herbert Wertheim College of Engineering

PROGRAM
UF in Dublin: Introduction to International Engineering offers students a chance to explore the different engineering fields offered by HWCOE through the perspective of universities, industries, and organizations in Ireland. You will have the opportunity to learn and develop your professional and intercultural competencies in a global environment. During these visits, you will participate in site visits and seminars to help you make informed decisions about choosing a major and the career opportunities available to you.

LOCATION
Dublin is the capital and the largest city in Ireland. The small population of 1.5 million gives Dublin the welcoming atmosphere of a small town.

EXCURSIONS
You will conduct industry visits, Cliffs of Moher, Aviva Stadium, Trinity College, and Dublin Castle.

HOUSING
You will be housed in a twin-sharing hotel or hostel.

LEARN
about different engineering fields and career opportunities beyond the classroom

VISIT
historical monuments in the city and learn about the construction and development of the city from an engineer’s perspective

DEVELOP
interest and understanding of the implications of cultural and contextual differences for engineers at home and abroad

UNDERSTAND
the impact of engineering solutions in a global, economic, environmental, and societal context
